

Can't afford to pay your Traffic Court ticket in San Francisco?

Superior Court of California
County of San Francisco

If you have a financial hardship or receive public benefits, you may ask the San Francisco Traffic Court for:

- A reduced fine,
- A payment plan, and/or
- Community service

To request a discount, go to:

mycitations.courts.ca.gov

or scan the QR code below.

To complete the request, you will need:

- 1 Your citation number or driver's license number. If your case does not contain a driver's license or citation number, please call the clerk (415) 551-8540.
- 2 Your monthly take home pay.
- 3 Proof of your monthly income or proof of public benefits, such as an EBT card, Medi-Cal card, statement of benefits from HSA or copy of pay stub. If you don't have these available, you can still apply.
